

1. JoAnn Wine Buys Hutka's Home

Why would a knowledgeable Realtor pay $308,000 CASH for a home in June, 2006, and then list it for sale at $276,000 in Feb, 2007?

4. City Housing Listed with JoAnn Wine & Associates

How does JoAnn Wine get all the city listings on residential property?

3. City Hires Tomion

With a more co-operative city manager, and a council "on board" obstacles are "cleared" for projects favored by Citizens First and Acheson Ventures.

2. Acheson fronts the money to Wine

Tom Hutka was never accepted by city insiders, who were anxious to hire Karl Tomion. Not enough votes to fire Hutka so he is offered a price much higher than what city assessor appraises (SEV = $118,900). Hutka resigns, and lives in home until January, 2007, before moving to Indiana.
